Required Attire and Shoes: All students are expected to follow the DM dress code. Please see our website for a full detailed list for each class. Please note the DM retail shop carries all required items.

Instructors: See the website for instructors' bios and accomplishments.

Rules of Conduct: While Dynamic Movements is structured for a fun learning experience, certain rules of conduct are expected of our dancers and parents.

1. Students should arrive on time, dressed, and ready to dance.
2. Always bring appropriate shoes and dress for each class (please do not wear outside shoes in the dance rooms to protect our floors).
3. No chewing gum or candy in class.
4. Please consume snacks in the student lounge or waiting room. Only bottled water in the studios.
5. Children who cannot use the bathroom by themselves must have an adult present during class.
6. Students ten years and younger must have an adult present in the building for the student to be released from classes.
7. DM is proud to hold many backstage and sportsmanship awards; it is of great importance to always treat others with respect.

We appreciate your cooperation in helping us to provide a positive and fun experience for our students.

General Information: Accepted payment methods: Visa, Mastercard, cash and checks ($25 fee for returned checks). We are unable to accept any debit cards payments. Ask about our automatic payment option. Monthly announcements will be provided by email, and printed copies will be available in the office throughout the Fall/Spring session. All parents and students are asked to read the announcements to be informed of important information regarding the studio, classes and performances. Email is our main form of communication-if your family is not receiving the monthly newsletters, invoices/receipts via email, please contact the front desk. All holiday closings and closings related to inclement weather will be emailed and posted on the website and the Dynamic Movements Facebook page.
